A person often does more good than he realizes when he tells a suffering friend how to get well. J. N. Tobitt, clerk of the hotel, Evansville, Ind., writes: "For several years I have been constantly with pains in the muscles of my thigh. I was treated by the doctor for rheumatism but found no relief. Upon recommendation of a friend, I tried Foley Kidney Pills and began to get relief almost immediately. Good for backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints. Lee & Osgood."

A short distance northeast of the reservoir of the Jewett City Water Co. on an abandoned road which is probably the ancient highway laid out four rods wide from the meeting house, now Preston City, to the Elkhorn Path, by the town of Preston, in 1687, are still to be seen ruins of farm buildings and vestiges of field and garden where once was a prosperous farm home. This tract of land is now a part of the water-shed of the Jewett City reservoir, and to insure the purity of the water supply the buildings have been dismantled and the farm returned to forest conditions. This farm was known to old residents as the Burdick farm, where at least two generations of that family lived.

CUTICURA HEALS SKIN TROUBLE

In Pimples On Face. Itched Could Not Help Scratching. Face Looked Badly.

"My face broke out in patches of pimples on my chin and around my eyes. They were very much and I could not help scratching them until they bled. My face looked badly all the time."

"I read Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement and sent for a free sample. My face was broken out for nearly a year but after using two full-sized boxes of Cuticura Soap and one full-sized box of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Josephine Strother, R. D. 2, South Paris, Me., Aug. 4, 1919.

Use Cuticura Soap for toilet purposes, assisted, now and then, by touches of Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal any tendency to irritation, redness or roughness of the skin or scalp. By using these delicate, fragrant, super-creamy emollients for all toilet purposes you may prevent many skin and scalp troubles becoming serious.

Do not fail to test the fascinating fragrance of Cuticura Soap without expense.

CONNECTICUT'S LAST CHANCE

The 34th state, West Virginia, has ratified the federal suffrage amendment. Washington and Delaware hold special sessions on March 22d and will undoubtedly ratify. This will complete the thirty-six states necessary to give full enfranchisement to the women of the United States.

Shall Connecticut, the first state in the Union to have a constitution, be left out of this roll of honor?

Shall Connecticut women vote through the action of the men of West Virginia, Washington and other states?

Unless Connecticut ratifies the amendment before these states act, her women will owe their enfranchisement to the men of other states. No belated act on the part of our Governor will change this central fact. We stand before the country as a state whose attitude toward its women is different from that of the overwhelming majority of the states in the Union. Yet, in this state, 103,000 women have petitioned for equal suffrage.

Over a majority of both parties of both houses of the legislature have petitioned the Governor to call a special session.

A group of prominent Republicans' presented this petition.

A Men's Republican Ratification Committee has been formed to help to secure ratification.

One chance remains to get Connecticut into the line of progress. If Governor Holcomb will call the Legislature together before Washington and Delaware meet on the 22d, we can redeem our reputation.

Shall Connecticut Travel Forever In The Ox-Cart?

number like the families of the ancient patriots, to live here, and late to wrest a bare subsistence from an unwilling soil. Before the Burdicks the Phillipses dwell in this place. In 1721, or thereabouts, John Ayer of Preston gave to his daughter, Esther, the wife of Jonathan Phillips, a farm, and entailed it to her sons and their heirs forever. The Phillipses, the head of each bearing the name of Jonathan, were in succession brought up, placed in a quarter of a mile north of the dismantled buildings, in the corner of a field, in a small burial place containing a few graves, where rest the bones of the Phillipses, and several of their children. Four of these graves bear no identifying mark. The stones marking the other two bear the inscriptions:

In Memory of Jonathan Phillips, who died Dec'r. 13th, 1815.

The sweet remembrance of the just Shall flourish 'tho' they sleep in dust.

Mrs. Jemima, wife of Jonathan Phillips, died May 4th, 1811, aged 57 years.

The sweet remembrance of the just Shall flourish when they sleep in dust.

The Aspinok bleachery was still Monday on account of high water. Sunday nearly fifty inches of water were coming over the dam. The big main driving belts in the wheel pit were removed Sunday but were re-attached Monday. All danger from high water in the Quinebaug is now considered to be over. The mark reached was low as compared with many previous spring freshets.

On two evenings during the high water, the report was circulated in the borough that the Wauregan dam was expected to give way. In some cases it seemed as if the dam would give way. Several had formed plans for quick action in the event of the calamity. Investigation has proven that there was no least cause for apprehension.

Several who walked amid Monday returned with large bunches of pussy willows.
